She is working on a grant to finish the nature center.

Officer's Reports:

President - Nothing new

Vice President - Mary-Louise reported that kids love the school store

Treasurer - set an interim budget until jog-a-thon

Secretary(s) - Nothing new,

Volunteer Coordinator(s) - Nothing new

Public Relations - Nothing new

Old Business:

The Halloween carnival will have a meeting on September 12th @ 6pm in the MGS library. Katie will make flyers to go home in Friday folders. They will have pizza from Benny's for every one that attends.

New Business:

Jog-a-thon is going to take place on October 5th at MGS during the students P.E. time. Jog-a-thon committee will meet on September 11th @ 4:30pm in the library. Flyers will be made and sent home in Friday folder to inform kids and parents about the Jog-a-thon. A mailer to send out to the community to advertise the purpose of the PTG and how the funds raised are used was discussed. Lorin is going to survey students to see what they would like for prizes and where they would like to go on their field trips.

A dine out has been scheduled with Block 15 for October 17th. They will donate 10% of all sales from that day to the PTG.

PTG will put together a welcome back gift basket for school employees. Mary and Tonya volunteered to do it to have this ready by tomorrow.

Board members voted by email to do officer nominations in October, vote in November and take office in December. It was discussed at the meeting that the Volunteer Coordinator position be worked into other positions. This was approved and Lorin will revise the PTG By-Laws to reflect this change.

Board members voted by email to have the Jog-a-thon on October 5th and to buy a new banner.

PTG voted to approve the interim budget.
