

Truancy

The executive officer of the Linn-Benton-Lincoln Education Service District or his/her appointee may serve as the attendance supervisor of the Monroe School District.

Pupils shall be punctual in reporting to school and to classes and shall attend regularly throughout the year.

The superintendent will develop procedures whereby those students who are considered truant may be subject to the following penalties: detention, suspension, and/or ineligibility to participate in athletics or activities.

These written procedures shall be given wide distribution. They shall be published with the student code of conduct and be available for students, staff and parents.
