

Released Time for Students

Students may be released from school to engage in private instruction with the approval of the Superintendent, provided that the student's parent/guardian assumes all responsibility for transportation and all liability during the student's absence from school.

Upon application of his/her parent or guardian, a child may be excused from school for religious instruction as provided by law. The maximum time allotted for this purpose is 120 minutes per week for elementary students and five hours per week in the high school.
