

Cash in the School Building

All cash received is to be properly receipted except such minor items as library fines. Money received will be placed on deposit in a timely way, except for the amount necessary for cash change for the operation.

No substantial amount of money will be kept overnight in the school building and at no time will money be held or left over long periods of time or holidays.

END OF POLICY
