- Ability to create a positive classroom culture and manage a productive learning environment.
- Commitment to supporting the growth and progress of all students.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Plan and deliver standards-based instruction for grades K-5 with appropriate content and expectations.
- Introduce students to new fields of physical education in a safe, supportive environment.
- Meet the diverse needs of all students using a variety of instructional strategies and assessments.
- Create a classroom environment that develops character, leadership, cooperation and respect for others.
- Collaborate with administration and staff to support curriculum alignment, student achievement and overall growth of students and programs.
- Maintain accurate records and meet professional expectations consistent with district policies.

SALARY/BENEFITS:

- Salary range: $33,366 to $41,036 based on experience and qualifications as per 25-27 certified collective bargaining agreement.
- District pays 6% towards PERS and up to $1,162 monthly for OEGB insurance.
- District accepts up to 7 years of experience on the salary schedule.
- District provides sick leave, personal days and professional development opportunities.
