Student of the Week

Asher Strand

Asher is having an incredible Sophomore year. He has made remarkable improvements in his classwork and study habits. He has set clear goals for himself this year, which has motivated him to excel. Asher is totally engaged during the entire class period. He always puts forth his best effort and encourages others to do the same. Asher truly cares about learning the class material, not just about getting an "A". Asher has a great sense of humor and is overall just a great person to have at Monroe High School. Great job Asher!
