Student of the Week

Lissette Rodriguez

Lissette is a very respectful person with a quiet but mature demeanor. She is eager to strive for excellence. Lissette always has great ideas and sets plans in motion for her ambitious ideas. Lissette has a knack for taking on as much work on her own as she can handle, but is not afraid to ask for help. Lissette can be counted on to put her best foot forward, listen and maximize her class time.

Way to go Lissette!

- ❖ Flex Change-Instead of signing up for flex via email, please signup at the office. Flex signups will be available until 4th period on Thursday.
- ❖ Boys and girls basketball teams are looking for shot clock operators. If you are interested in earning a little money and can commit to home varsity basketball games, then please check in with the office for more information.
- ❖ The Monroe High School Giving Tree is up! If you are interested in donating, just grab a tag and notify the office or Ms. Fuller which tag you have. All gifts are due to Ms. Fuller on 12/19.
- ❖ Yearbook is looking for pictures of students with their pets, and students doing their hobbies. Picture must include the student. If you would like to share your picture with the yearbook please send it to Miley at miley.richardson@monroe.k12.or.us
- ❖ Students interested in participating in the Salmon Bowl need to return their participation forms to Ms. John no later than 12/13.
